

Core task: To analyze the combined database of 1994-2018 of the results of surveys of individuals within the framework of the Russian Monitoring of the Economic Situation and Health of the Population in order to understand connections of different socio-economic factors and the level of life satisfaction.

Should be done in STATA.